UD HANDS IN HARMONY GROUP TO PERFORM

DAYTON, Ohio -- The University of Dayton's "Hands in Harmony," a sign singing ensemble, will perform at 7 p.m. Sunday, April 12, in the Kennedy Memorial Union Boll Theatre.

Hands in Harmony, a campus ministry service club, translates songs into sign language and performs them in a manner which can be understood and enjoyed by both hearing and deaf audiences. The 15-member organization grew from a music therapy project designed to promote deaf awareness through entertainment.

The show will consist of lighthearted selections from the 1950s and 1960s, and admission is free. For more information, contact Lisa Hawley at (513) 229-5384.
